CAUSE NO. 98S00-0710-DI-441

Attorney No. 11591-06

The Indiana Supreme Court Disciplinary Commission has filed its Verified Notice of Foreign Discipline and Petition for Issuance of an Order to Show Cause, wherein it is demonstrated that Alan David Hutchinson, the respondent herein, an attorney admitted to practice law in the states of Indiana and Illinois, was suspended from the practice of law in the State of Illinois initially for a stayed one (1) year period, and then, after a finding of a probation violation, for a minimum period of active suspension of one (1) year, effective March 6, 2007.

1. The procedure was so lacking in notice or opportunity to be heard as to constitute a deprivation of due process;

2. There was such infirmity of proof establishing the misconduct as to give rise to the clear conviction that this Court could not, consistent with its duty, accept as final the conclusion on that subject;
3. The imposition of the same discipline by this Court would be inconsistent with standards governing sanctions in Indiana or would result in grave injustice; or
4. The misconduct established warrants substantially different discipline in Indiana.

The Clerk of this Court is directed to serve a copy of this Order upon the Executive Secretary of the Indiana Supreme Court Disciplinary Commission and by certified U.S. mail, return receipt requested, upon the respondent, Alan David Hutchinson, at their respective addresses appearing on the official roll of attorneys.

DONE at Indianapolis, Indiana this 26th day of October, 2007
